MEMORANDUM FOR Commander, U.S. Army, Europe, and Seventh Army,
Attn: AEAGX, Unit 29351, APO AE 09014

SUBJECT: Army Superior Unit Award (ASUA)

1. The recommendation for award of the ASUA to the United States Army, Europe, Band and Chorus, for the period 1 January 1996 to 31 December 1996, has been approved.
2. The citation and certificate are enclosed. The individual ribbons (emblems) should be procured through local supply channels.
3. If the unit is entitled to a streamer, the streamer will automatically be furnished (upon authorization from the Center of Military History) by Commander, US Army Support Activity.
4. A lapel pin is authorized for issue and wear by Department of the Army civilians in the employ of the decorated unit. Those individuals employed with the unit during the cited period may wear the lapel pin permanently. Those currently employed with a decorated unit, but who were not employed during the cited period, may wear the lapel pin on a temporary basis as long as they remain employed by the unit. The lapel pin is also authorized for optional purchase and wear on civilian clothing by qualified military personnel. Permanent and temporary wear is governed by the provisions of AR 670-1.
5. This correspondence will serve as authorization for the award of the ASUA to be annotated to military personnel records, pending announcement in Department of the Army General Orders.
